

COVID-19: BASICS TO THE FRONTLINE BATTLE

Online CME Program for ARCOM Faculty & Preceptors

Tuesday, June 9, 2020 | 6:30-9:30PM (CST)

Moderated by Rance McClain, DO, FACOFP, FAOASM

Dean of ARCOM

Today, physicians are facing a challenge none of us have faced before, a global pandemic. As Coronavirus has spread across the country we have seen an evolution of thought on transmission, diagnosis and treatment. Join us for this online CME, as we take you through the epidemiology of the pandemic, learn how to identify infection in both typical and atypical presentations, and get a look at what life is like on the front lines. Join us in the battle against this evolving public health threat.
